SENATOR SCOTT RALLIES FOR AFFORDABLE INSURANCE

(LANSING) – State Senator Martha G. Scott’s campaign to guarantee fair and affordable insurance coverage to all Michigan residents will take another step forward on October 11th when she hosts a “Rally Against Insurance Redlining” on the front steps of the state Capitol.

Reasonably priced home and automobile insurance is inaccessible to many Michigan residents, yet Michigan law stipulates coverage in most situations. Senate Democrats have sponsored a host of bills addressing the issue of unaffordable and unfair insurance pricing. The Republican chair of the Senate Banking and Financial Institutions committee has yet to allow for a vote on any piece of the proposed legislative package.

Consumers from throughout the state are invited to rally on the Capitol lawn in support of this important legislation.
